

Book a meeting – create your time slots

Your sales persons/contact persons can easily set up his or her individual booking slots . Follow the guide and see how easy it's done.

Create booking slots

You are now ready for the attendees to start booking a meeting with you.

The attendee will book through your sponsor/exhibitor profile in the app.

The attendee receives an email to await final confirmation before the booking is confirmed – unless you chose 'auto confirmation'

The contact person receives a booking request which needs to be confirmed or denied.

Finally the attendee receives a confirmation email.

Check your bookings!

Confirm or reject meeting

As a contact person, you receive an email or sms when a booking is made.

Your meeting is automatically confirmed to the attendee, if you have set up auto confirmation. If not, you have to 'reject/confirm' manually.

Your event organizer has customized the emails which are sent, so you don't have to worry about this.
